

Madison Children's Memorial Garden

The Madison Children's Memorial Garden is located in Strawberry Patch Park in Madison, Mississippi. This garden is being created by a group called "Too Soon" which consists of moms who have lost children. It is a special place where parents can visit and reflect on their loss as well as celebrate the lives that are gone too soon. The purpose is to bring about tranquility, to reflect and feel God's presence and hope by bringing a little glimpse of Heaven closer to home. We pray it is a blessing to all that go and enjoy the garden.
